MEN'S CLUB

Thursday, May 18
6 p.m.
Annual Dinner &
Samuel Sacks Award

Temple members and their guests are invited to join the Men's Club for its end-of-year dinner and meeting, featuring the installation of officers and presentation of the Samuel Sacks Achievement Award to this year's recipient, Frances Aaron Hess.

A congregant since 1992, Mrs. Hess served as a Temple trustee for more than a decade. She also served many years as chairperson of the Museum and Program committees. Her current activities include being treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary, a member of the Daily Readers Panel, a captain of the Sunday Lunch Program and Temple archivist.

Samuel Sacks, a dedicated and devoted member of the congregation and of the Men's Club, established a fund nearly 30 years ago whereby the Temple receives a yearly contribution. Mr. Sacks also wished to recognize members of the congregation for their service and support of the Temple. Each year since 1977, the Men's Club board of directors has established a committee to recommend deserving individuals to receive this award.

The cost for this event is $60 per person. Checks made payable to the Men's Club should be submitted by Friday, May 12. Questions? Call (212) 744-1400, ext. 250.

Film Screening and Q&A: Diamonds in the Snow

Temple Emanu-El and the American Society for Jewish Heritage in Poland are pleased to announce a free screening of Diamonds in the Snow, followed by a Q&A with the filmmaker, Mira Reym Binford. This international prize-winning film tells the stories of three young children from Bedzin, Poland—including the filmmaker—who were saved from the Nazis by Polish strangers. Thousands of Jewish children lived in Bedzin before the Nazi invasion, but only about a dozen survived. The survivors' perspectives, interwoven with rare archival images, create a deeply moving, authentic portrayal of the complexities of history and human nature. This event is free and open to the public. Enter at the Marvin and Elisabeth Cassell Community House, One East 65th Street.

Memoir, Memory and Identity: Discussion With Author Abigail Pogrebin

Abigail Pogrebin

Journalist Abigail Pogrebin was aware of how connected she felt to other Jews but confused about her own relationship to Jewish tradition and what she wanted to pass along to her two young children. In her book Stars of David:

Prominent Jews Talk About Being Jewish, Ms. Pogrebin shares intimate conversations with 62 well-known Jews—including New York State Attorney General Eliot Spitzer, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, director Steven Spielberg, actress Sarah Jessica Parker—on childhood rituals and superstitions, experiences in (and out of) synagogue, as well as feelings about God, Israel, anti-Semitism, intermarriage and assimilation. This program is the final session in the 2006 lecture series co-sponsored by Temple Emanu-El's Ivan M. Stettenheim Library and the Herbert & Eileen Bernard Museum of Judaica. Admission is free and open to the public. Enter at One East 65th Street. RSVP to (212) 744-1400, ext. 362.

Children hiding under a different religion

Tuesday, May 23
11 a.m.

Life in Shadows: Hidden Children and the Holocaust

The Women's Auxiliary is sponsoring a trip to the Museum of Jewish Heritage to view Life in Shadows: Hidden Children and the Holocaust. The exhibit, created by the U.S. Holocaust

Museum, recounts the experiences of hidden children of the Holocaust who were forced to conceal their identities and leave their families in order to survive. As we will be guests of the Museum of Jewish Heritage, this event is open only to Women's Auxiliary members in good standing. On the day of the event, we will meet at the museum (36 Battery Place).

Questions and reservations:
Call (212) 744-1400, ext. 235.

CULTURE & COSTUME

THE HERBERT & EILEEN BERNARD MUSEUM OF JUDAICA is pleased to announce the opening of its spring exhibit, CULTURE & COSTUME: DEPICTIONS OF JEWISH DRESS ACROSS FIVE CENTURIES, which runs through August 3.

Explore questions raised by Culture & Costume through four interactive study sessions to be taught by faculty from the Skirball Center for Adult Jewish Learning at Temple Emanu-El. Sessions meet from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on May 31, June 7, June 14 and June 21. Cost: $15 per class, $45 for the series. To register, call (212) 507-9580.

CULTURE & COSTUME documents the perceptions and imaginings of travelers and artists who illustrated Jewish modes of dress and ways of life in various parts of the world from the 15th through the 19th centuries. The clothes and customs of Jews living in North Africa, the Ottoman Empire and Europe were recorded in books and prints that purported to describe the manners, laws, religions and dress of people in these places. At certain periods in history, Jews were subjected to elaborately detailed regulations regarding their dress. The clothing seen in these prints reflects a distinctive Jewish identity, whether forged by choice or by decree. For Museum hours, call (212) 744-1400, ext. 259.
