Religious School with Honors Application

Level III: Role Model

Congregation Emanu-El of the City of New York

Mazal tov!! Now that you have proven to be a Student Leader by achieving Religious School with Honors Level II you are ready to go even further in becoming a Role Model by earning Level III. To do so, you will need to participate in five more events from any of the four categories. The final step will be to demonstrate your understanding of Torah, Avodah and G'milut Chasadim by writing an article or making a presentation.

Name of Student: _____ Grade: _____ Day of Week Attending Religious School: _____

	Date of event	Name of event or program	Type of event (check one):				What did you experience at this event that connects it to Torah, Avodah, G'milut Chasadim or Leadership?
			Torah (study)	Avodah (worship)	G'milut Chasadim (kind acts)	Leadership

“On three things the world stands. On Torah (study), on Avodah (worship), and on G’milut Chasadim (kind acts)”
--Pirkei Avot 1:2

You have already demonstrated great leadership by participating in so many Temple programs outside of school hours. The final step in achieving Level III and becoming a Role Model is to demonstrate to the Religious School community your understanding of the connection between Torah, Avodah and G’milut Chasadim, including how your participation in Temple programs helped you reach this understanding. Projects can take the form of a presentation to your class, article for the school newspaper, video for our website, or something else you think of! Completion of this presentation will make you a Role Model for other students in our school. To discuss your plan, and arrange your Role Model Project, contact Rachel Brumberg, rbrumberg@emanuelnyc.org.

Please briefly describe the format of your Role Model Project:
