

WOMEN OF EMANU-EL PROGRAM CALENDAR 2025-2026 | 5786

ROSÉ ON THE ROOF

Wednesday, September 17, 2025
6:00 PM

Raise a glass to 5786 with Women of Emanu-El! Enjoy rosé and sweet treats on the roof while connecting with old and new friends. Open to all temple members.

LUNCH & GAMES AT T BAR

Wednesday, October 15, 2025
12:30 PM

Join Women of Emanu-El for lunch and an afternoon of Mah Jongg and Canasta at T Bar (116 E 60th Street). Enjoy great food, friendly competition, and the chance to meet new friends. Advance registration required. All levels welcome.

JEWISH HISTORY TOUR OF GREENWICH VILLAGE

Tuesday, October 21, 2025
11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Discover the Jewish roots of Greenwich Village with historian Bradley Shaw. Explore synagogues, hidden cemeteries, and cultural landmarks that tell the story of over 200 years of Jewish life in one of NYC's most iconic neighborhoods.

FRICK MUSEUM PRIVATE TOUR

Wednesday, November 5, 2025
Time TBD

Explore the newly renovated Frick Collection with a private guided tour of the mansion's second floor, featuring small-scale sculptures, ceramics, portrait medals, drawings, and paintings, as well as a special exhibition space on the first floor. This is the Frick's first comprehensive renovation since 1935.

SABBATH DINNER: "LIFE IS A CABERNET"

Friday, December 5, 2025
7:00 PM (following the 6:00 PM worship service)

All temple members are invited to join us after the 6:00 PM worship service for a special night featuring our beloved Senior Cantor Mo Glazman, joined by Music Director Colin Fowler and other talented musicians, as they take us on a musical journey spanning jazz, Broadway, opera, country, pop, and Ladino traditions.

Enjoy an inspired selection of songs from four countries, Israel, Italy, Spain, and the U.S., as you savor a gourmet dinner, indulge in expertly paired wines from these same four regions, deepening your connection to the melodies and traditions woven throughout an evening of friendship, reflection, and renewal.

CHILDREN'S STORYTIME AND DRAWING WITH PAUL O. ZELINSKY

Sunday, December 7, 2025
12:00 PM – 1:30 PM

Beloved Caldecott award winning children's book illustrator, Paul O. Zelinsky, is coming to Temple Emanu-El. His children's book illustrations include Wheels on the Bus, Rapunzel, All-of-a-Kind Family Hannukah, and many others. He will be reading stories, and drawing with audience participation, both at an easel and digitally on a screen. Children ages 2-8 years old, parents, and grandparents invited.

BAKING WITH WOMEN OF EMANU-EL: CHALLAH & BABKA CLASS

Tuesday, January 13, 2026
11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Roll, twist, and taste your way through a hands-on challah and babka baking class at New York Cake Academy. Learn sweet and savory variations in a baker's dream kitchen!

PAUL RUDOLPH HOUSE TOUR

February 2026 (Date TBD)
11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Take a private guided tour of the only Paul Rudolph-designed interior in NYC. Explore this architectural gem—furnished with Rudolph's own designs—and learn about his legacy in modernist architecture.

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE VISIT
EMANUELNYC.ORG/CALENDAR

With thanks to
Benay Ostrager DiGia, Program Chair

WORLD PREMIER OF MARCEL ON THE TRAIN

March 2026 (Date and Time TBD)

Join the Women of Emanu-El for a moving Off-Broadway experience this spring: Marcel on the Train, the world premiere play that brings to life Marcel Marceau's heroic service in the French Resistance. Best known as the beloved mime "Bip the Clown," Marceau also courageously rescued more than 70 Jewish children during the Holocaust—smuggling them to safety across the Swiss border. Don't miss this powerful tribute to quiet heroism, starring Ethan Slater and opening February 2026 at the Lynn F. Angelson Theater.

JEWISH HARLEM WALKING TOUR

Thursday, April 16, 2026
11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Experience Harlem's rich Jewish history with urban historian Bradley Shaw. Visit former synagogues, Jewish theaters, and hidden architectural gems that tell the story of Harlem's vibrant Jewish community from the early 20th century.

SPRING FLING: LADIES HAT LUNCH AND ANNUAL MEETING

Thursday, May 7, 2026
12:00 PM

Celebrate spring in style with Women of Emanu-El. Don your favorite hat for a festive luncheon and our annual meeting, where we'll share updates, celebrate our community, and look ahead to the year to come.

STILL TO COME

WQXR AT TEMPLE EMANU-EL: CLASSICAL CONCERT & CONVERSATION

Join us for an inspiring evening of music and dialogue as WQXR, New York City's classical radio station, brings its signature programming to Temple Emanu-El. Featuring a live performance by a distinguished classical artist and moderated conversation with a WQXR host, this special event offers a rare opportunity to experience world-class music in an intimate setting. The evening will conclude with an audience Q&A.